THE ANNUAL HARVEST!

Everybody Benefited! Once a Year

S. L. POWERS & CO.

Let go all values as to profits and swap dollars with their multitude of customers. This is generally done in the dull season, but this time it is decided to begin at once, and on MONDAY, MAY 20th, inaugurate in STANFORD and HUSTONVILLE.

A Great Cut - Price Sale Applying to Every Department and Each Article in Stock.

We want to see how many goods can be sold before July 1st. Profit is not thought of, and large losses are consented to in some lines. The stores are OVERLOADED WITH GOODS. We know the way out of the dilemma. When we cut we cut deep and apply the knife to the very hilt. LOOK AT THESE

Startling Figures! See what a Knock-Down Argument Looks Like:

Twelve spools of good Machine Thread (half of it Clark's O. N. T., or Kerr's in any number desired, black or white) for 30c.

Best Indigo Blue Calicoes, 6¼c; best 10c Bleached Muslin 8¼c; a splendid, fine, yard-wide, soft-finished Bleached Muslin reduced from 9c to 6¼c; the best heavy, yard-wide Unbleached Muslin for 5c ever shown in Kentucky; has been 7c.

All the best Apron Gingham, such as Lancasters and Amoskeag, that have been 10c a yard, are cut down to 6¼c; beautiful Chamberlay Dress Gingham that sell everywhere at 12c reduced to 7¼c.

Shirtings and Cheeks for Men and Boys cut down from 10c to 6¼c and 7¼c; elegant Sateens worth 15c are now displayed by us at 7¼c. Figured Lawns 3¼c to 5c.

In White Goods for Ladies' and Children's Dresses and Aprons, the prices are cut about square in two—5c, 7¼c, 10c and 12¼c; sold last season at double that.

Curtain Scrims 63¼, worth 15c; Bed Spreads reduced about half; see what a daisy we show you at 69c, used to be $1.25.

Fine Woolen Dress Goods, all Worsted & Woolen, Reduced about 30 Per Cent.

Even in fine Henriettas and the Trimmings, Buttons, Linings, etc., at cost, or thrown in free. All Notions are cut down to almost no price. LACES and EMBROIDERIES specially cheap. SHOES—thousands of pairs for Ladies, Gents and Children, bought recently at a Great Sacrifice, and will go into this General Slaughter Sale at actual cost or less. This gives you a $2 Shoe for about $1.35 and a $1.25 Shoe for 85c. There never has been such a grand chance for the people of Lincoln and surrounding counties to supply themselves and families with Shoes at an enormous saving in outlay since this has been a county.

HATS of all kinds; thousands of Straw Hats from 5c up. We often sell a good dollar Hat in these sales at 25c. This season our Trimmed Hats for Ladies and Children are a great feature. Not much over one-third millinery store prices in cities. Remember the prices given in this circular are upon the best class of Staple Goods. People who look can't help buy. We dare you to walk in and see the prices. Remember we keep anything needed by young or old. CLOTHING! During this Great Cut-Price Sale we will knife prices in Clothing worse than any department in the store. Before we are done with it we propose to have a new suit on every man and boy in the county, if we can get them inside the door. Men's Coats 40 cents. Men's Suits $1.50 and up. Boys' Pants and Suits at less than the stuff they are made of costs. We are in earnest in our determination to let the people have the goods. We will lose some money now and hope to make a little in the future. The best advertisements are the best goods at low prices. This House can stand it for the time named. This sale will be in full force from May 20th to July 1st. What you see in our stores will correspond in every respect with what appears in this circular. Bring it along and test our sincerity.

HIGHLAND.

—Sam Oswald and Herve Helm, two young lawyers from Stanford, were in our midst Friday.

—G. M. Baker will close his store in a few weeks and devote his entire attention to the saw mill business.

—The pike is being smoothed down by constant travel, and we can soon boast of as good a road by our little village as any town.

—Ben Hyatt's saw and grist mill is doing a big business. He saws all the week save Friday and grinds on that day. The general verdict is that Ben can give as much and as good meal to the bushel as the next man.

—There were never as many locusts as there are this year. The keep up a continual song, which resembles very much escaping steam from an engine. The "woods are full of them" and each day seems to bring more.

—J. S. Young, with his army of road hands, is rapidly completing the work on the new pike. Mr. Young possesses awkwardness commensurate with his corpulence, but when it comes down to work, he gets there with the best of them.

—Baker Bros., general merchandisers, will soon tear down their present store-room and build in its stead a more commodious one. They are well pleased with their business during their several months' stay with us and by their gentlemanly conduct have been accessions to Highland's business, as well as her society.

—The recent rains have brought out the crops and everything is looking well in this vicinity. A large crop of wheat will be harvested and the corn was never better. Considerable land has been cleared up in the last year or two, and the Highland vicinity comes to the front with her portion of agricultural products. Gardens have been well cared for and our citizens are now enjoying the early vegetables.

DANVILLE. — The Kentucky Sunday School Convention for Boyle county meets the 31st inst. at Caldwell Church. All the friends of Sabbath-schools are invited to be present and bring their baskets. The Kentucky Division of the League of American Wheelmen will hold their annual "meet" in this city June 10. Benj. and Tom Darham have bought out the grocery stock of McLean & Burke and will conduct business at the old stand. Capt. and Mrs. A. S. McGorty have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Clara Lee, to Rev. Wm. E. Bryce, of Indianapolis, Ind. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock Thursday, May 30th. Five Danville couples are to marry yet this month. Fox & Rice sold to Tom Woods 51 head of sheep cattle at $3.40 per ewe. —Advocate.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Alma, daughter of Mr. J. J. Craig, of Danville, is to marry Rev. A. M. Irvine June 7th.

—Near Hopkinsville, an 18-year-old girl named Fowler killed herself with a rifle during a fit of despondency, supposed to have been caused by disappointment in love.

—Miss Nina, daughter of Gen. Kirby Smith, of Confederate fame, eloped with a student of the Swannoe University, Tenn., where her father holds a professorship, and was married. She was to have been united to an Atlanta wholesale merchant today.

WAYNESBURG.

—The Waynesburg & Highland Turnpike Company have again commenced operations on their road and will no doubt have it completed to this place before frost.

Our neighboring village, Fulsink, over in Pulaski county, had a very disgraceful picnic on last Saturday. Your correspondent is credibly informed that a majority of the men present were full of whisky. The dance wound up with a general row in which pistols, knives, rocks, clubs, &c., were drawn and some of them used. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt; a head or two pulled and some black eyes being all the damage done. I asked my informant where the parties got the whisky. He said at the drug store.

—Noticing a number of men announcing themselves as candidates for the various offices in the county, I wish to say that we have a man out in this western country whom we intend to put before the people as a candidate for superintendent of public schools. Our man is Prof. W. F. Niles, who is thoroughly qualified to fill the office in all the branches. He is not only a scholar, but also a man of strictly moral habits. Prof. Niles has taught five sessions in our school here, and has aroused our people in the interest of education until we now have one of the best schools in the county.

—Our town has the pleasure of welcoming another physician in our midst in the person of Dr. Salles from Wayne county. The Dr. will set up for business in a few days and hang out the usual shingle. Suppose some undertaker will be the next in order as the two always go together. The people are favorably impressed with Dr. Salles and will no doubt give him a liberal patronage. Our town is alive with business. Merchants are doing a good business, notwithstanding there is not a drop of spirit sold here with or without prescription. If we only had a county judge who would enforce the law in regard to druggists selling liquor, instead of licensing them to violate the law, there would be very little of the devilish stuff sold in the county.

Bobbitt Files the Track and Quits.

TO THE VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.—Gentlemen, in order that the democracy may be free to exercise its best judgment in selecting a candidate for the legislature, and to give gentlemen who may desire to represent the county an opportunity of seeking the nomination before the convention, without any apprehension of opposition from me as an independent I desire to say that I shall not be a candidate for the legislature at the August election. It is true that after the ring saw I was going to beat the nominee in 1887, and therefore induced a republican to run and defeat both nominee and me. I did say in a public speech at Stanford that I should be a candidate in 1889 and further stated on that occasion that another nominee of the ring should never be elected, yet a bad resolution is better broken than kept. If there is any money or honor in the position I have achieved both by some of the most remarkable races and against the bitterest opposition from money and talent that the political records of any age or country has ever shown! For the unprecedented devotion of my friends for nearly two decades I cannot express my gratitude! For the bitter and unrelenting persecution of enemies I also am deeply indebted and to them I also return my thanks! Now let the convention give us a good democrat and a competent man, and a glorious victory will be the result. Give us the gallant Sam Embury, the generous W. C. Cash, the venerable Vandever, Squire Portman, or the American nobleman, A. M. Feland. Give us any one of these or any one like them and Lincoln county will have a representative of whom she will be proud. FONTAINE F. BOBBITT.

NOR TAYLOR LOVER.—Twin sisters who formerly lived in Waldo county, Maine, looked so much alike that no one out of the family could distinguish Jane from Susan, and their father himself was sometimes puzzled. Susan had a "bean," a very devoted young man, who called often and stayed late, so often and so late that the young lady began to feel the loss of sleep and remarked one evening that she almost hoped George wouldn't come to night. "Why can't I take your place for once and give you a vacation?" asked her sister. The offer was at once accepted, the tired daisies got a good night's sleep and George never knew that he spent one evening from 8 p. m. to 2 a. m., in Jane's society until several years after he and Susan were happily married. —Lewiston Journal.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear, healthy and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beegs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

Card of Thanks.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church desire to tender their thanks to Mrs. Priestley for her skillful and unwearying labors in drilling the performers; to the ladies and gentlemen who gave their services in the various parts of the programme; to Mr. W. P. Walton for his many courtesies; and lastly to the large and appreciative audience whose presence crowned the whole with success. The ladies feel it a privilege thus to acknowledge the favor granted them and would with great pleasure truthfully say many complimentary things of all concerned in the concert, did they believe that a proper regard for the feelings of those ladies and gentlemen would allow it.

Red Hot For Dick Still.

TO THE EDITOR INTERIOR JOURNAL.—McKINNEY, May 24.—The democrats of Turnersville precinct, McKimney and this vicinity generally are for the Hon. R. C. Warren for representative first, last and all the time, and will so instruct their delegates to the Stanford convention.

Mrs. LEMMY NIELD, the fascinating temperance lecturer, will lecture in private for a season. It's a boy and this is the first intimation of a great many of Mrs. Nield's admirers have of her not being a widow. We congratulate Brother Nield on occasionally letting the world know that he still lives. —Glasgow Times.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

A Woman's Discovery.

Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its claws upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She brought out a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle she has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Lusher Lutz. This write W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Sell a free trial bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store.

Eupespy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Eupespy, if used according to directions, and if we are persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and ease the Depressing Dyspepsia and install instead Eupespy. We guarantee Electric Eupespy for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle by A. R. Penny's drug store.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beegs' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

W. P. WALTON.

Our editorial friends must not get impatient about their transportation to the Press Convention. We will serve them in ample time. The arrangements have all been made but the passes have not yet arrived. The L. & N., through its general ticket agent, Col. C. P. Atmore, the Chesapeake & Ohio through Mr. H. W. Fuller, the Old Kentucky Route through Mr. J. L. Murphy, the Louisville, St. Louis & Texas Road through Mr. J. L. McCracken, the C. & O. and Southwestern through Mr. W. H. Prouty and the Louisville Southern through Mr. E. O. McCormick have extended the courtesies of their roads without money and without price, while others have made reductions.

The effort to have Col. Henry D. McHenry succeed to the chairmanship of the National Committee, made vacant by the death of Mr. Barnum, ought to abort. As a member of the committee from Kentucky he has proven worse than a figure head and it is a wonder that he has been permitted to hold the position for 20 years, when there are so many more capable men for the place. The next State convention ought to retire the fat and oleaginous colonel and put a man who knows how to do something in his stead—Gov. McCreary for instance.

The report that several of the members of the cabinet are to resign because the president does not allow them sufficient latitude in the conduct of their departments, but reduces theirs to the rank of mere clerical positions, is a lie out of whole cloth. Who ever heard of a republican giving up an office? Were Harrison to decide that it was his prerogative to kick them around each day with his good right boot, they would still freeze on to that $8,000 a year and call for more. No, they will not resign this nor 'smother time.

CHANDLER is to deliver a poem at the Press Convention, which, according to a Louisville correspondent, will be a patchwork piece, composed of a verse from each editor in the State who is kind enough to respond to the colonel's request for a couplet. It will be a unique memorial to the immaculate gall of this most unoriginal originality, who for a time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary has appropriated indiscriminately the ideas and substance of others with an assurance refreshing in its unpretentious audacity.

In his speech before the republican convention, which was full of misstatements, not to use a more applicable term, Gen. Bradley grew very eloquent in praise of Harrison. The admiration in this case seems entirely one-sided. In fact the president thinks so little of the little Kentucky rooster that he put him off with the coldest potato in the lot. But our dear friend, the general, is so much of a toady we fear he will turn to a toad.

It is very important that there shall be full meetings of the democracy in every precinct of the county next Saturday to send delegates to the convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature, which will be held here June county court day. Let there be a full and free expression of opinions and representative men appointed who will come here determined to do their best for the interest of the democratic party.

A few years ago all the type foundries in the country formed a combination and adopted a list of high prices with a uniform discount for cash. It succeeded in gouging the printers pretty lively until recently, when for some cause it "busted" and now the foundries are offering type at 35 per cent. off for the prices adopted by the combine. If all the trusts were of like short duration the harm they could do would not cut a great figure.

HARRISON continues to take care of his kinsfolk by placing them in the pay of the government. Saturday he let in a cousin and the list now stands: The President's brother, the President's father-in-law, the father-in-law of the President's son, the brother of the husband of the President's daughter, and the husband of the daughter of the President's brother.

TANNER, the pension agent's friend, fell and broke one of his wooden legs the other day and, it is said, will grant himself an additional amount of pension therefor. If the old fellow had broken his neck instead of a wooden leg, it perhaps would have been better for the country.

Is a drunken row during the war a soldier named Powell was struck with a denijohn by a comrade and considerably hurt. He now has the gall to claim a pension on account of it and in these days of Tanner, when everything goes, the chances are 10 to 1 that he will get it.

GEN. GREELY has the rheumatism and now tells when it is going to rain by the increase of pain that precedes damp weather. There is nothing like having a complete outfit for foretelling the weather changes.

The republican convention resolved that its party shall nominate a candidate in every legislative district and it will be done. The nominees will not in many cases be announced before the day of the election, because that party prefers the sneaking, still-hunt method, but no democrat ought to be deceived by their failure to announce. The party lines will be drawn and democrats must be nominated for every position. A candidate who is unwilling to receive the endorsement of the party of which he claims to be a member, is not entitled to its support and for one we will not give it to him.

Our Waynesburg correspondent does not seem to be aware of the law on the subject or he would not criticize the county judge for doing what the legislature and the courts have decided he shall do. They say that when a bona fide druggist of good standing presents the proper proof to the county judge he may grant him license to sell whisky on prescription, and on his failure to do so an appeal can be taken to the circuit court. He cannot act arbitrarily in the matter, and if there be fault it is in the law and not in the judge.

The London Echo gets after Judge Boyd in a mild way because he is alleged to have said from the bench when a juror said he had formed his opinion of a case from reading a report of it in that paper, "No man who would form an opinion of any case from what he might read in a paper was competent to make a good juror." This is pretty rough to be said in connection with a paper that has always stood by him, but the judge doesn't love newspapers we learn from Col. Colgan, of the Pineville Messenger.

The Covington Commonwealth's head is level on the question. It says: "A good license law, general in its application, would give far better results than prohibition in spots. The Commonwealth insists that prohibition is not a political question. A man may be an ardent advocate of prohibitory laws and at the same time be a democrat and it is not democratic to refuse party support to a deserving party man because he is not a prohibitionist."

WHITELAW REID as minister to France gets $17,500 a year and pays $20,000 a year for a furnished house. Mr. Reid is a rich man and doesn't care for expenses besides he thinks there is enough honor in representing this great government to be willing to pay handsomely for the privilege.

The Pembroke Criterion, A. S. Gentry editor, and the Kentucky Colonel, by W. S. Sterrett, are out in time to entitle the proprietors to all the rights and privileges of the Kentucky Press Association which convenes in annual session at Owensboro on the 6th.

In the election for school superintendents all over West Virginia last week, the majority for democrats was over 6,000. The rads tried hard to break this atom of the Solid South, but it appears that she still maintains her place in its column.

NEWS CONDENSED.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. W. R. VANDER, of Louisville, is visiting her father, Mr. E. G. Brady.

Mrs. J. C. HARRIS is confined to her room by a painful sprain of an ankle.

Mrs. L. H. RAMSEY, of Lexington, is visiting at Mrs. W. F. Ramsey's.

Miss ANNIE SHANKS left yesterday to attend the commencement at Danville College.

Mr. S. D. VAN PELT, the clever marble worker of Danville, is again assisting Mr. G. G. Wine.

Our excellent Lancaster correspondent, Bro. John H. Woodcock, has been sick, hence his short letters.

Miss LUCY TATE has gone to Harrodsburg to attend the commencement exercises of her Alma Mater.

Mrs. E. J. MONROE, of Stanford, was visiting her son, an accomplished night operator, W. A. Moberly, London Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. SPANNS, of Mt. Vernon, have moved back to Stanford and taken rooms at Mrs. Kate Dunderar's.

SHIRLEY and Miss C. R. BELL, of this county, will sail for Europe on or about June 1st to be gone a couple or three months.

W. H. HIGGINS has returned from Kansas City, bringing with him Lawrence and Katie, the children of the late Mrs. Mollie Park.

Mr. J. A. MUD, train dispatcher, has returned from Hot Springs cured of his rheumatism and reports Tom Hughes improving rapidly.

Rev. S. S. McROBERTS reached the ripe old age of 82 last Friday. His good wife is 10 years younger, but no one would take her for over 60.

PRESIDENT J. W. COLEMAN, of the T. P. A., elected Saturday for his third term, was here yesterday. He seems to be the most popular drummer in the business.

Mrs. MAITIE McALISTER and daughter, Miss Mattie, of Danville, and Mr. A. E. Humbley and wife, of Boyle, were with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAlister Sunday.

MISSISS, JOHN W. MILLER, "Bully" Mason, Charley Gallagher, Mike Salter, and Editor M. H. Hughes, of Lancaster, attended Bro. Barnes' meeting Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. JULIA BASS and daughter, Miss Fannie Hoskins, of Campbellsville, and Mrs. Nannie Brewer and children of Danville, attended the burial of Mrs. Lytle, Friday.

Mrs. ELIZA SHELTON, who has been with her son, Judge T. L. Shelton, since last fall, leaves for her home in Virginia to-day. She is past three-score and in feeble health and the judge will accompany her through.

Miss EMMA SAEVLEY, who has been in Wyoming since the judge removed thither, and Miss Helen Sandley, for the same length of time an art student in Knoxville, arrived Sunday looking even prettier than ever. Their delight to be at their old home is fully shared by friends young and old to have them with us again.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says Col. Breck Jones, president of the Deatur (Ala.) Land Improvement and Finance Company, is there to invite the President, the cabinet and other high officials to attend the celebration of the opening of the industrial enterprises of Deatur, which occurs on the 26th inst. He had a pleasant interview with the President and was assured that the government would be represented.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Wire screens for doors and windows at Sine & Menefee's.

SHIR SHORT, a sure killer for potato bugs, at Metcalf & Foster's.

ONE school trustee in each district will be elected next Saturday. The qualified voters and widows with children in the school age, 6 to 20, can vote in the election.

The attention of the authorities is called to the fact that the jail sewers are in a bad condition and are liable to create an epidemic here. A stitch in time often saves nine.

DEATH.—Mr. W. H. Higgins received a telegram from Mrs. J. Carver Jones stating that her little son, Prather, had died suddenly of brain fever. He was only a few months old.

CHIEFS.—Mr. W. H. Squires has been here for several days advertising Forepaugh's Circus, which will exhibit here this afternoon. He tells us that he gives a splendid performance for the low price of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

New hats and new flowers in endless variety at Mrs. Kate Dunderar's.

The stock trains on the K. C. run Tuesdays and Saturdays instead of as stated and leave Rowland at noon.

A HANDSOME monument to the memory of Mr. Solon Craig has been placed on his grave by his niece, Mrs. M. E. Lord, nee Harris.

HAIL, as large as bird eggs, fell in torrents at Jellison Saturday evening breaking out window glass and greatly damaging early vegetables.

A STEADY down-pour nearly all day Saturday and at night has moistened the dry earth thoroughly and vegetation is whopping itself.

The second lecture of Rev. George G. Barnes on the Lost Tribes will be delivered at the Opera House to-night. Let everybody attend. Admission 25 cts.

The commencement exercises of Stanford Female College will occur June 6th and the seven sweet girl graduates entertain at the College the following night from 8 to 12.

The Somerset Reporter says that while James Pence, of Crab Orchard, was drunk down there, a little negro named Gran Ingram went through him and got $20, all the money he had.

The city council of Jellison is a legislative power from away back. It has passed a law requiring the railroad to open its ticket office an hour instead of a half hour before the departure of trains, under penalty of $5 for each offense.

The Danvilles didn't want to contend with the dampness that prevailed Saturday in crossing bats with the LANCETON JOURNAL, so they telegraphed that they would not come, or we would have had to chronicle another defeat for them.

The Presbyterian ladies spread a really nice supper Friday night and realized $80 from it. Those who assist actively in getting up such suppers and serving them have a hard time of it and deserve great praise. The pretty waiter girls also come in for a liberal share for without them but few of the youngsters would care to attend.

NO USE FOR A DENTIST.—Mr. J. L. Dawson, Sr., himself over 80 years of age, sends us the following: "Mr. David Swaps, of this county, the father of Col. A. M. Swaps, is over 82 years old, has a full mouth of natural teeth, all sound, never had a tooth extracted and has never had the toothache. His hair is not very gray and he can walk about for miles almost as actively as a boy."

The Kentucky Head Mite, published at Danville, speaks thus complimentary of our namesake: The Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL is in luck. It has a base ball club named for it that is using up all the clubs from neighboring towns. The boys had holiday from the shop a portion of Friday afternoon and went over to the College ground to see a game that resulted in the Danville club being used for a mop. Our boys say that a Virginia rail fence is nothing to the curve of the Stanford pitcher.

We believe in ridding the town of the worthless dogs that the owners do not care enough for to muzzle, but we object seriously to the "button" method of removing them. It is an underhanded sneaking way, besides it gives scamp dogs a spite at a man or his dog a chance to get in his cowardly work under the protection of the law. Let the marshal shoot the dogs which come under the ban and then there will be no doubt as to who did the killing or as to the authority to do it.

SHOT.—An Joe Goode, colored, was passing by Bet Buford's house in Macksville Thursday night, Bill King and Edmund Lillard, also negroes, and three white men whom he did not know, all of whom had been in to see the ladies of that house of ill fame, he was stopped by a friendly voice from the crowd. After talking a while Edmund Lillard exhibited a gun and Goode asked him what he was going to do with it. Lillard retorted that it was none of his d—n business and commenced putting the caps on as if preparing to shoot. Goode told him he would smack his head off if he fooled with him with the gun, when one of the white men said, "Do it and I'll knock hell out of you." "No you won't" was Goode's reply and they then had a few rounds, Goode using a stick, the white men his fists. This continued for a few seconds when the white man drew his pistol and shot three times, only one ball taking effect and that entering the right side a couple of inches below the nipple and coming out at the back. The crowd then skipped and Goode was carried to his home by Marshal Carpenter, who had by that time arrived. His injuries are very painful but not fatal. Goode says that Deputy Marshal Merahan was near and saw the difficulty but attempted no arrests, and he also claims that since he has been assisting in keeping order for the town he has several times been imposed upon by a lot of negroes who say they have it in for him. He says he had seen the men several times but did not know them; however he thinks one of them was young Barnett, but is confident he did not do the shooting. No arrests have been made or attempted and it seems that no effort will be made to put an end to such lawlessness.

The opening hop at Hales well occurs Thursday night and big preparations are being made to entertain a large crowd. Good music, a splendid supper and a capital time are promised all who attend.

Mrs. PRIESTLEY will repeat the concert at McKendree next Friday night, at which time the ladies will spread a beautiful supper. The small sum of 50 cents will admit you to both or 25 cents to either. Attend and help the good women pay off their church debt.

FROST.—Mrs. J. L. Dawson predicts frost this morning. She says that in a long life she has never failed to see a frost fall on the same day in May that a fog appears in February and on the 28th of that month a very dense one enveloped the earth. We hope and believe the good lady will see her sign fail in this year of our Lord.

The public will regret to know that those clever conductors on this division, Captains Crouch, Dick Lawton and Charley Turner have been fired, along with the very large number from the other divisions of the L. & N. Capt. J. W. Rose and George W. Delph, freight conductors, are two of the promotions. The other is not announced.

The remains of Mrs. Judge Lytle were met at the depot Friday afternoon by a large crowd of friends, who loved her much in life, and came to pay her the last tribute of respect that mortals can. A great many of them brought flowers, and the grave was literally covered with these floral offerings. Mr. R. S. Lytle returned, but the family took the sensible view that their presence could do no good to them nor the dead, and did not come.

The Concert given by Mrs. Priestley's music class, assisted by some outside talent, proved a very creditable entertainment and put $80 in the treasury to go towards building a parsonage for the Methodist church. Her pupils all showed careful training and the chorus of wee little girls so well executed was proof that she had labored hard with them. The solo of Miss Kittie Baughman, the fine instrumental execution of Miss Nan Baughman, the vocal and instrumental efforts of Misses Minnie, Fannie and Annie Straub and those of several smaller girls were especially praiseworthy and were each heartily applauded. To those who assisted much credit is also due. Miss Iva Smiley sang a solo very sweetly; Miss Lattie Bailey rendered a difficult selection on the piano with remarkable ease and beauty of execution, while Mrs. Thomas Metcalf treated the audience to a happy surprise in the very charming manner in which she sang "Say You Love Me, Little Nell." Her voice is very soft and sweet and her effort was rewarded with the only encore of the evening, to which she gracefully responded. Dr. W. B. Penny, although 6 feet 1 1/2 inches high, was not quite tall enough to reach the high notes of the first cornet solo he essayed, but he got there in great shape, notwithstanding the efforts of the boys to rattle him, on the Empress Polka, thoroughly redeeming himself and proving his ability to use that difficult little instrument. Dr. Morris Evans, S. S. Myers, Will Severance and Joe F. Waters also took part and added to the programme which seemed to be enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Priestley is to be congratulated on the very gratifying success of the entertainment both in a musical and pecuniary point of view.

BRO. BARNES.—The good evangelist arrived Saturday, somewhat the worse for wear in homesteading and traveling, but still the same magnetic, lovable man as of yore. The friends were disappointed that his wife and Misses Marie and George failed to come, but Bro. Barnes' explanation was satisfactory. Mrs. Barnes had gone to Danville to be with her afflicted brother, Col. John Cowan, and the young ladies had stopped off at Bowling Green on the importunities of friends. Bro. Barnes was to preach at the Court House Sunday afternoon, but Rev. John Bell Gibson with a commendable spirit of religion and courtesy, extended a warm invitation to him to use his church and it was accepted. The firm hold that he has on the hearts of this people was again demonstrated for when he arose to speak every nook in the church and baptistry was crowded by anxious hearers, scores standing during the entire service to listen to the sweet gospel of "God is Love and Nothing Else." His text was "To the Unknown God" and his sermon was soul stirring in its eloquence and power. His voice is as clear and penetrating as ever and "age does not seem to wither nor custom stale his infinite variety" of thought and expression. Last night Bro. Barnes delivered his first lecture on "The Lost Tribes; and the Vanished Sceptre" in the Opera House and to-night at the same place he will give the other. It is earnestly hoped that his old home, where he has labored so much for love, will respond liberally to the call and send him away with at least $200. Bro. Barnes programme for the next week is as follows: From here he will go to Lancaster, lecturing there Wednesday and Thursday nights and then to Walnut at Paint Lick, Friday and Saturday nights. He will preach at Richmond Sunday next at 3 o'clock and lecture Monday and Tuesday nights. Newspapers and people are earnestly requested to give these notices as much currency as possible.

The ladies of the Christian Church at Junction City will give a strawberry supper next Saturday, June 1st from 3 to 9 o'clock for the benefit of the church. They will be pleased to have the patronage of the public.

THIEVES broke into the meat-house of Misses Maggie and Jennie Hocker a few nights ago and got away with 14 pieces of bacon. There are some suspicious as to their identity and the probability is that they will pay dearly for this method of supplying provisions.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The Northern and Southern Presbyterian Assemblies have decided to cooperate with each other in home and foreign mission work.

Rev. H. Allen, Tipper leaves for Europe to-day for an extended tour. His Louisville church tendered him a farewell reception last week.

Rev. F. C. Clark, two daughters, a son and a niece were burned to death in their home, Princess Anne county, Va. Mr. Clark was a Baptist minister.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly resolved that no young man who uses tobacco in any form shall be added thereto by the Board of Education in his studies for the ministry.

The Hartford Theological Seminary has opened all its courses to women on the same terms as to men. It is the first institution of the kind to undertake theological training for women.

The Methodist church, just dedicated in Lee county, this State, is the first building of the kind erected in its borders. It has a congregation of 600 and was dedicated free of debt.

Bro. Barnes attended the Christian church Sunday morning and returned thanks at the sacramental service. At night he attended the Presbyterian church, but Mr. Helin, never having seen him, was not aware of his presence. In his sermon at the Christian church the evangelist said he expected to preach again in the old Presbyterian church before he died and that he would do so by invitation and not go in by the back door.

Wilson, of Tennessee, bought in this and Garrard counties a car-load of young mules at $120 to $140.

Wanted, a combined harness mare or gelding four or five years old. Apply at INTERIOR JOURNAL office.

The differences between the tobacco buyers and the Louisville warehousemen have ended in victory for the latter.

The good rains in Christian county have made a fine tobacco planting season and the farmers are taking advantage of it.

August Belmont's colt, St. Carlo, by ribon Fisher, dam Carina, won the Great American Stakes for two year-olds, worth $20,000, at Brooklyn.

Col. J. W. Guest, of Danville, Ky., former owner of Terra Cotta and a breeder of many fine horses, has been having hard luck at the races. He has lost steadily without a single streak of good fortune. Last night he said: "They are holding a protracted meeting in my wife's church and I have telegraphed her to hold it over until I can get home. I'm going to quit for good and all."—Cincinnati Commercial.

AN ACROSTIC.

By The "New Poet."

Down in a rural spot,
Kodging forth from a mountain,
In rhythmic musical sounds
Pours a perfect fountain;
Pressing forward on its course
In search of heavenly pleasure,
Never stopping to converse
Greater words, or earthly treasure springs.

Springs I on which I cannot tell,
Pressing forward to make all well,
Roaring, purring, rushing on
In your efforts to make a song;
Now you sing a sweet refrain,
Gurgling forth a heavenly strain,
Stop you short for I've caught your name.
Grand Opening Picnic June 1st.

HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN BULL.

Captain Aaggie Wayne!

No. 975 H. F. H.

Will be permitted to serve a few cows at my stable on Lancaster pike in suburbs of Stanford, at Three Dollars by the season, and a fee of 50 cents to Mt. Rest, the groom, payable in advance, with the privilege of breeding till the cow proves to be with calf.

This young bull is not only of the very best breeding, but is individually a very superior animal in every particular. He will not fail to produce milk cows of the highest excellence. Both his pedigree and his individuality guarantee this.

The Holstein-Friesian cattle have for several seasons taken the lead in the blooded cattle market by commanding under the hammer the highest prices, and having the capacity to produce more milk and butter than any other breed and as much and as good beef, they will not fail to retain their lead in popular favor. W. H. MILLER.

I have for sale two fine registered Holstein-Friesian bull calves and one grade heifer calf. 34-2m W. H. MILLER, Stanford, Ky.
